1. Changes in activities FVE survey in 2015

Main activities (2023)

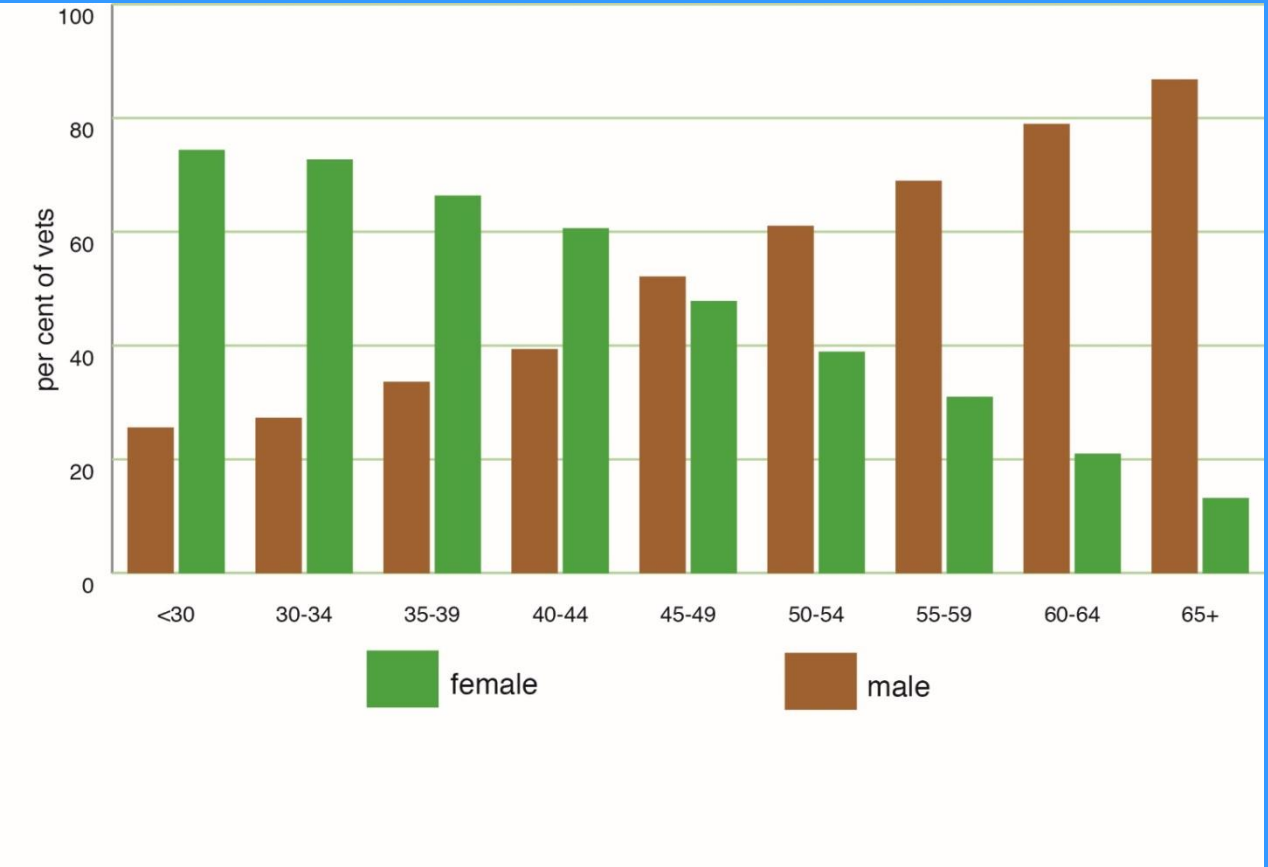

- 63% in clinical practice (predominantly small animal sector)

- 14% public service
- 6% education and research
- 4% industry

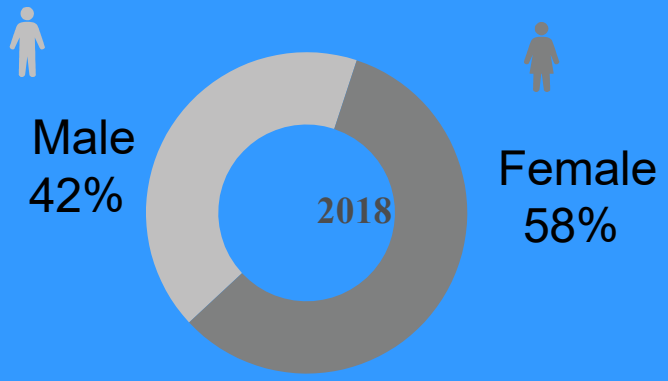

Changes in the male:female ratio Feminisation

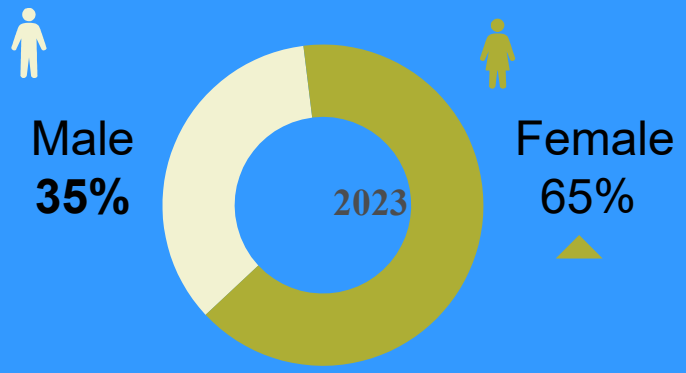

- Increased number of female students
- More female vets (53% 2015, 58% 2018, 65% 2023)
- More part time employed vets
- Less large animal practitioners
- Less food hygenists
- Less self employed

FVE survey 2015

Gender (2023)

Vet numbers and gender ratio in HUNGARY

- Practice licences: 2686
  - large animal practice: 1,5%
  - small animal practice: 28%
  - mixed practice: 69,8%
- Gender: 38% female vets
  - Gender in Budapest: 53% females
  - Gender in Pest County: 51% females

FVE surveys (2015, 2018) 2023, 2026 evaluation on going

Go to FVE's website:

www.fve.org

- earlier VETSurveys are available!

F ES SI ON ONE VIS I ON ONE V O I C E